Karachi dated the August 26, 2022

NOTICE

It is information for all SIBA test passed qualified candidates who stand eligible for appointment but their offer or appointment orders are placed in abeyance or temporarily suspended because of possessing Permanent Residence Certificate (PRC- Form D) after cutoff date. In this regard, a summary for Honourable Chief Minister, Sindh has been initiated requesting therein, to waive off the above mentioned condition.

Thus, there is no need to approach different corners, including the office of the Honourable Minister Sahib or Secretary School Education & literacy Department unnecessarily. As soon as the summary is approved, a notification regarding waive off the said condition shall be issued and posted on the official website of the department for general information.

CNIC DIGIT/ADDRESS ISSUE

Further, the scrutiny of documents of candidates possessing CNIC with out of province digits and addresses is well underway. Thus, the cases of many candidates have so far been decided and their letters have also been issued for further process. So there is no need of visiting different offices. Only, the candidates who have failed to submit their supporting documents in connection with CNIC digit or out of province address, can visit us to submit their documents for scrutiny.

Regards.
